

Gigi

My grandma

You are caring and funny
Make me smile and laugh
You're so fun to be around

My favorite grandma ever.
I love you more than anything
Unlimited wealth, fame, or dogs.

Laugh after laugh
Joke after joke
Don't forget our card games of war or that I love you more.

Relaxing in Naples
Watching the sunset unroll
Dolphins fly through the water.
Or just sitting at home,
laughing and talking
I love you Gigi.

Like the bonds that hold the sky above
Nothing will ever happen to our love
No matter WHAT happens.

The sky falls in,
the oceans dry out,
the sun stops shining upon us,
I still love you.

Because after all,
I am your little squirt.
So, alligator, I'll see you later,
Or maybe even sooner.
